DIED.

WALKER—In Seattle Wash., April 2nd, Gilbert Carlton Walker, a native of Virginia City, Nev., aged 25 years 11 months and 22 days. (San Francisco, Oakland, and Birmingham, N.Y., papers please copy).

COBB—In Virginia City, Nev., April 4, Alma, beloved daughter of W. H. M. and Emily W. Cobb, a native of Dayton, Nev., aged 4 years, 2 months and 20 days.

(The funeral will take place from the family residence, in this city, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.)

To The Public

I have secured the best pasture in Eagle Valley for this season, and will take milch cows at $3 cash, per month. No extra charge for driving stock. I respectfully solicit patronage and I guarantee satisfaction. D. S. ULLRICK. m26

Sandrock and Millard, practical plumbers and gasfitters, have opened a shop in Dick Mills' old stand South Carson St., and propose to do all work in their line at prices so low that you don't have to mortgage your property to pay them. Stoves and ranges and all kinds of tinware on hand, at very reasonable rates. Razors and scissors sharpened. j31tf.

For the next 30 days a reduction of 10 to 20 per cent. on every price of goods at Golden's to reduce the immense stock of goods on hand. Call and secure bargains. m6

Golden has secured a first-class watch-maker and jeweler, who worked for Geo. C. Scriver & Co. for years in San Francisco. Take your watches and jewelry there and have them repaired right.

A. Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his holiday stock. d 13 tf

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

For the next 60 days I will sell Merchaum Pipes, Brier Pipes and all other kinds for cost; also Knives, Razors, etc. I have a small line of stationery which will be sold for cost. I have 30,000 cigars that I will sell at wholesale prices by the box; also 300 lbs. of smoking and chewing tobacco and many other things too numerous to mention.

My goods will be all marked so that all will be treated alike. Goods must be sold; come one, come all. m14 G. S. HAWKINS.

ALL SORTS.

Judge Rising is holding court at Hawthorne.

The laying of new granite crossings is a good idea.

It looks as if another storm might be expected soon.

J. W. Kelly the Bodie mining man passed through on last evening's train.

WANTED—Few more members for the Watch Club, at Frank Goldens. Commences May 1st.

The members of the M. E. Church contemplate giving a lunch at Odd Fellows' Hall on Decoration Day.

Voters who wish to register for the next election, are notified that they are expected to give their place of residence to the Registry agent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Yerington Gov. and Mrs. Adams and Archie Farrington left on Saturday morning's train for a trip along the line of the C. & C.

Don't forget the National Guard Masquerade Ball which takes place in Virginia on the 10th. A special car will go up from here and a jolly lot of masquers will be there.

Will Langevin a former Carson boy but now a resident of Hawthorne came last evening to Empire to pay a visit to his parents. Before leaving Hawthorne he appeared before Judge Rising and became a citizen.

The Mt. Diablo Mill at Soda Springs gives employment to about thirty men. With the exception of shutting down for a clean-up or for repairs this mill has been running steadily, day and night, for over three years.

D. M. Bull, the inventor of the famous Reciprocating Lever Wheel, now built at Verdi, has his invention well under way and expects to have it whirling in about six weeks. When he sells 150 shares of stock there will be no more for sale at any price. He will remain in the city a few days.

Some parties in this city seem considerably alarmed over the prospect of the APPEAL indulging in personal journalism. If opposition to crime and rascality may be ranked as personal journalism, parties in that category may look for considerable personal journalism from this on. Law-abiding citizens have nothing to fear.

Mrs. Dr. Winzell, the Electrician who visited Carson last Winter, is again permanently located in San Francisco, at the Science Building, 819 Market st., room 40, where in connection with her electrical treatments she has Electric Baths and all the latest appliances for the use of electricity as a curative agent. a7 1w

We have received mysterious hints that certain parties will shortly walk on the APPEAL. Jesso, but this journal has always made it a rule that people who indulge in pedestrian exercise on the APPEAL, shall take their shoes off before doing the walking. This is one of the office rules we never allow to be violated.

The APPEAL is informed by Oliver Roberts, Superintendent of the furniture from Thomas Kene, that the furniture for the new post-office and court-room is not all here yet, it will take two-weeks before he can get it arranged and put together. The wood-work in the post-office has to be all rubbed down yet and the room kalsomined.

A Successful Operation.

Thursday Dr. Herdan successfully removed a cancer from the throat of George Erving, of Candelaria. The operation was performed at the Arlington Hotel and the patient is getting along very nicely.

Folsome's Case.

During the Stevenson trial Assemblyman Folsome got into an altercation with the Sheriff over his right to stand or sit down in the Court-room and the case will come for a hearing at 10 o'clock this morning.

General Day.

The New York Times publishes the following in relation to the father of Harry Day of this city:

Gen. Hannibal Day who died yesterday morning at 7:30 o'clock at Morristown N. J. was one of the few remaining soldiers of the old school. He was born in 1804 in Vermont and was the son of Dr. Sylvester Day Assistant Surgeon in the United States Army. Sept. 1, 1819, he was appointed a cadet at West Point, and upon being graduated July 1, 1823, he was made Second Lieutenant of the Second Infantry, and stationed at Fort Brady, Michigan where he served until 1828, when he was on typographical duty for three years. April 4, 1832, he was commissioned First Lieutenant, and took part in the Black Hawk expedition though not on active duty.

He was afterwards stationed at Fort Dearborn, Illinois. He served in the Florida Indian wars from 1838 until 1842, and in the war with Mexico 1846-47. He then served on the frontier until the outbreak of the rebellion, being stationed at Fort Ridgely, Fort Ripley, Fort Randle, Fort Larimer and Fort Abercrombie and rose to the rank of Colonel. As Colonel of the First Brigade of Ayres's division of the Fifth Corps he was actively engaged in the battle of Gettysburg and rendered gallant service in defense of Round Top on the extreme left of the line during the second day of the battle. He held the same command during the march to Warrenton, Va., in July, 1863.

Aug. 1, 1863, Col. Day was retired on his own application after forty consecutive years of service, but he was subsequently in command of Fort Hamilton, New York until June 8, 1864, and served on various military commissions and court marshal until 1869.

Gen. Day has been married fifty years and survived his wife for ten years. He leaves a son and daughter. Gen. Day was a member of Royal Legion.

A Rank Fizzle.

The Fell-Wilson fight was a rank fizzle and did not come off.

The Comstock is getting a very odorous reputation for swindles of this description. Wilson refused to fight unless more money was up, which shows that the advertisement of a stake $500 a side was all a sham.

Those Virginia fights are simply to coax money out of a gullible public. This is not the first time that wagon loads of Carson people have gone to Virginia City, to see just such affairs, and the men who are running those snaps had better close up the game and quit.

Carson appears to be the only place where, when a crowd collects to see a fight, they see it.

Empire Notes.

The APPEAL's Empire reporter furnishes the following:

Wiggins' invitation ball on Friday evening was a great success, and largely attended by people from the adjoining towns, while the elite of Empire were out en masse. The collation served by Mrs. Cole was up to her usual standard of excellence, and the music suited the crowd.

At the Morgan mill a new battery is being put in, and a large force of carpenters are at work, to get things in readiness for a run on Con. Va., ore.

Miss Belle O'Leary who has been visiting Miss Fannie Morris, departed for Carson on Sunday. ZEB.

He Found Taber.

The first thing that Stanley did when he reached San Francisco, was to make his way through the wilderness of cheap and incompetent photographers, and found Taber.

He was as delighted as when he found Livingston. Stanley would allow no other artist to pose him while in San Francisco and was rewarded with a magnificent picture.

If you want a good fitting shoe go to Oleovich Bros. m24

We Plead Guilty.

Our evening contemporary charges us with the serious offence of taking a holiday and suspending publication on Arbor Day.

As the APPEAL was the first newspaper in the State of Nevada to urge the establishment of a general day for tree planting, we feel as if we have a right to celebrate it.

The editor of the APPEAL has always observed the day and has on his ranch over 2000 growing fruit and shade trees to show for his work. We would like to inquire of our meddlesome contemporary how many trees he has planted during the past fifteen years or in what other way he has helped develop Nevada, beyond collecting all the money he could in Carson and salting it down in town lots in Oregon.

Things have reached a delightful pass in Carson when a man can't put in a day planting trees without being barked at by a toothless and fault-finding newspaper.

For Vagrancy.

On Sunday last Arthur Willmot was arrested by the Sheriff for vagrancy. Several years ago Mr. Willmot was a shining light of the typographical industry and lifted type for the various newspapers of the city. He finally became possessed of disinclination to wrestle with manual labor and retired from the ranks of the producers.

He finally became such a stranger to labor that he was unable to recognize it. Some years ago he secured a position in a circus, painting the zebras, but the labor of sorting over and classifying the stripes was more than he could stand and resigned because he was not allowed the job of packing grub to the ant eaters.

His case will come up for consideration to-day.

Custer Post Monument.

On or about May 25th, the societies of Custer Post will unvail a bronze monument on the center of their plot in the Cemetery. It represents a soldier with his musket at "parade rest" standing on a column. The column and soldier is of white bronze on a granite pedestal, and in all will be 18 feet high.

The figure of the soldier will be a trifle over six feet high.

The bill asking for legislature appropriation of $1,500, to pay for the monument was drawn up and given to the consideration of the Legislature by W. Hy. Doane of Custer Post, and it passed almost unanimously. The monument is being manufactured at Bridgeport, Conn.

Exempt From Taxation

An Act of the Legislature approved March 23, 1891, provides for the exemption from taxation of the following property:

"The funds, furniture, and paraphernalia and regalia owned by any lodge of the Order of Free and Accepted Masons, or the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, or of any other similar charitable organization, or by any benevolent or charitable society, so long as the same shall be used exclusively for the legitimate purposes of such lodge or society, or for such charitable or benevolent purposes; provided, that such exemption shall in no case exceed the sum of five thousand dollars to any one lodge, society or organization.

A Sad Death.

On Saturday last, Alma, the infant daughter of W. H. M. and Emily Cobb, died in Virginia City, where it had been taken for medical treatment.

The child was but little over four years old and the light of the household. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock to day from the residence of the parents.

Mr. Woodburn's Speech.

The shorthand report of Mr. Woodburn's argument in the Stevenson trial was made by Mr. J. H. C. Lawrence of Gold Hill. It was a very accurate piece of work and made interesting reading for hundreds of people last Sunday in Carson. Extra copies can be had at the office.
